

Making Inclusion Work

February 28, 2012
1:30—4:00pm
Forum

4:00—5:30pm
Reception & Book
Sale:

Exploring Inclusive
Educational Practices
Through Professional Inquiry

Are You

An educator
An administrator
A person with an intellectual disability
A family member

Then this forum is for you!

Only $20!

Where:
Holiday Inn Yorkdale
3450 Dufferin St. Toronto
T: 416-789-5161
F: 416-785-6845

Are You Committed to Improving Inclusive Education For Students with an Intellectual Disability?
Then Don't Miss This Important Forum!

Deirdre Smith, Manager, Standards of Practice and Education at the Ontario College of Teachers. In this capacity Deirdre leads a team of program officers who conduct research, development and implementation activities that support strategic planning and a provincial framework that maintains standards of practice and promotes continuing competence among members of the College of teachers of Ontario.

Gordon L. Porter is the Director of Inclusive Education Canada. He is Chair of the New Brunswick Human Rights Commission and an educator with extensive experience in inclusive education. He is active as a speaker and consultant in Canada and in a number of other countries. Deirdre Smith and Gordon have published a book entitled Exploring Inclusive Educational Practices through Professional Inquiry which makes the case for inclusive education.

Dr. Sheila Bennett is a native of Newfoundland and Labrador where she began her career as a special education teacher. Upon completion of her graduate work at the University of Toronto, Dr. Bennett held a number of school and board-based positions in Ontario prior to joining the Faculty of Education at Brock University. Currently a Professor of the Teacher Education Department with the Faculty of Education there, Dr. Bennett continues to work in the field of Special Education and Inclusion. A member of the Council for Exceptional Children, the Learning Disabilities Association of Niagara and the Board of Trustees for the Niagara Peninsula Children's Centre, she maintains close connections with the field of exceptionality.

Brought to you by:

COMMUNITY LIVING
Ontario
Inspiring Possibilities

Community Living
Toronto
Where choices change the lives of people with an intellectual disability

To register: <https://event-wizard.com/events/makinginclusionworktor/>

For more information, contact Sharon Ross

T: 416-438-1165, ext 222

E: sross@cltoronto.ca

This project is funded in part by the Government of Canada's Social Development Partnerships Program - Disability component. "The opinions and interpretations in this publication are those of the author and do not reflect those of the Government of Canada."